A stylized illustration of a theater stage. A vibrant red curtain with a scalloped gold fringe at the top and bottom is pulled back to reveal a white rectangular screen. The screen is framed by a thick black border. In the center of the white screen, the word "Fin." is written in a bold, black, sans-serif font. On either side of the screen, the red curtain is held back by a gold tassel. The entire scene is set against a plain white background.

Fin.
